GMS PM 881 Drug Discovery and Development (2 cr)
Tuesdays, 4:00 – 5:50 p.m., BUSM Room TBA
Spring 2009

TOPICS

Target Identification & Validation
Biological and Chemical Strategies for Progress from Pre-exploratory to Pre-Development Phases

Overview of Translational Medicine
Objectives & Design of Clinical Trials
IND Preparation
Phase 1-3 Trials

Components of the New Drug Application

Course Directors: John McKew, Ph.D. and David H. Farb, Ph.D.
Prerequisites: The course is open to all students in the BA, MA, and PhD programs at Boston University who have taken the prerequisite coursework in biology and chemistry and obtained consent from the Course Director, Dr. Farb (dfarb@bu.edu).

For more information: Lindsay Ritz, Academic Coordinator  Tel. 617-638-4301  E-mail: pharm2@bu.edu