LIMITED FUNDING OPPORTUNITY

TO: BUMC Faculty
FROM: Andrew W. Taylor, Associate Dean of Research, BUSM
DATE: May 21, 2021

SUBJECT: Edward Mallinckrodt, Jr Foundation Grants

OBJECTIVES: The Edward Mallinckrodt, Jr. Foundation is a private foundation that funds basic biomedical research in St Louis and throughout the United States. The mission of the Foundation is to support early stage investigators engaged in biomedical research that has the potential to significantly advance the understanding, diagnosis, or treatment of disease.

Mallinckrodt Grants are competitively provided to investigators based on their proposals, selected from applicants on an annual basis.

FUNDING INFORMATION: These awards are usually $60,000 per year for three years, no indirect costs, provided an annual progress report is submitted and approved.

ELIGIBILITY RESTRICTIONS: Each institution is allowed to submit one proposal. Applicants should be in the first to fourth year of their tenure track faculty position and not have current R01 funding. Grants are usually $60,000 and funding commences on October 1. No indirect costs are allowed. Salary is acceptable.

INTERNAL SELECTION PROCESS: Interested BUMC investigators should submit the following materials listed below via InfoReady Review by Monday, June 21, 2021. If you are a BMC investigator and wish to apply for this opportunity, please contact Jennifer Fleming, Director of Foundation Relations and Government Grants at jennifer.fleming@bmc.org by Friday, May 28, 2021.

- Questions outlined in InfoReady Review application;
- A brief (one-page) statement by the candidate describing his or her significant scientific work and immediate research plans;
- A brief budget overview of the proposed project
- Up-to-date CV

A faculty committee drawn from both campuses will review internal proposals and select nominees. Foundation Relations will work with the nominees to develop and submit the institutional nomination letter and applicant materials by Aug. 1, 2021.

In requesting to be considered for this limited submission funding opportunity, you are making a commitment, if selected, to submit your proposal to the sponsor in a timely manner and to Sponsored Programs in accordance with the Proposal Submission Policy.
