Disclosure Policy

It is the policy of Boston University School of Medicine Department of Continuing Medical Education, that faculty disclose to program participants any real or apparent conflict of interest. In addition, the faculty is asked to disclose any discussion pertaining to the unapproved use of pharmaceuticals and devices. Complete disclosure information will be available on site in the printed course materials.

Substitutions and Cancellations

Substitutions may be made at any time without additional charge. Refunds will be issued for all cancellations received at least two weeks prior to the start of the conference. Should cancellation occur less than two weeks prior to the conference starting date, a credit towards another Boston University School of Medicine conference will be issued, not a refund. A $50.00 administrative fee will be charged for all refunds and credits. "No shows" are subject to the full course fee. Cancellations/substitutions must be made in writing. Refunds and credits will not be issued once the conference has started. This course is subject to change and/or cancellation.

Special Services / Dietary Needs

To request reasonable accommodations for disabilities, please notify the Office of Continuing Medical Education, in writing, at least two weeks prior to the start of the conference. The Office of Continuing Medical Education will work to accommodate dietary requests (including, but not limited to: kosher, vegetarian, low cholesterol, and low sodium) received in writing at least two weeks prior to the start of the conference.

ACCREDITATION

Target Audience

Pediatricians, family practitioners, general practitioners, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and residents

Conference Goals

This conference is designed to address practice gaps in the areas of pediatric behavioral and developmental care, critical care, dermatology, hematology, infectious diseases and ophthalmology. The conference is intended to increase knowledge and competence by providing opportunities for learning through lectures, discussion, small group workshops, and interaction with faculty and peers. In addition to some of the specific clinical objectives listed below, the faculty have identified when they will address the Six Core Competencies required for Maintenance of Certification (see icons after each talk).

Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this conference, participants will be able to:

- Discuss with parents appropriate restrictions on children's media use
- Approach common behaviors in young children with up-to-date strategies for management
- Consider the impact of poverty, violence exposure and environmental toxins on childhood outcomes
- Advocate effectively for children with autism in receiving appropriate treatment options
- Determine which patients require follow-up for post-concussive symptoms
- Identify common complaints that can require more emergent care
- Have simple strategies for removal of some foreign bodies
- Identify interventions that can be done until more definitive care can be arranged
- Determine which minor facial and dental injuries require immediate referral and which can be managed safely in the office
- Identify which patients require treatment for urinary symptoms or abnormal laboratory results
- Develop a strategy for choosing antibiotics
- Identify which patients require imaging
- Diagnose and treat several common cutaneous infections using current evidence
- Identify and manage several common urgent and emergent dermatologic disorders using current evidence
- Perform several cost-effective and useful office procedures related to dermatology
- Articulate increased understanding of the motivations for Alternative medicine, and identify some common treatments
- Differentiate iron deficiency from other causes of microcytic anemia and treat it effectively
- Integrate symptoms and lab test results to screen for common bleeding disorders
- Understand what hemoglobinopathies are represented by newborn screening results and which patients require subspecialist management
- Feel more comfortable providing preventative care for patients with sickle cell anemia and treating basic acute complications
- Distinguish relevant pediatric and adolescent updates to epidemiology, diagnosis and treatment for STDs (HIV, syphilis, HSV, HPV, and trichomonas)
- Review current STD screening guidelines and interpretation of screening results, in the context of population-specific recommendations, cost and confidentiality concerns, and availability of screening assays
- Summarize updated meningococcal, Tdap, and HPV vaccine recommendations
- Discuss pre-travel prophylaxis and anticipatory guidance for pediatric travelers to some common international destinations
- Familiarize parents and providers with high-risk behaviors and environments for ocular injury
- Help parents develop strategies to improve compliance with glasses and patching
- Develop age-appropriate vision testing strategies
- Elucidate harbingers of more serious ocular disease when confronted with a child with a red eye
