Teaching Opportunities at BUSM

Last Monday, Graduate Medical Sciences and Biomedical Laboratory & Clinical Sciences held a joint seminar on teaching opportunities at BUSM for graduate students and postdocs. Attendees learned about opportunities to tutor, TA, and instruct undergraduate courses at BUSM. Over 33 graduate and postdocs signed up. If chosen, many of them will begin teaching during the Summer Term Session (May 22-June 29, 2012) or through fall semester (September 4 – December 12, 2012). We are very lucky to be able to offer this opportunity to our current graduate students and postdocs, and glad that many have taken advantage of it. If you missed the seminar, and are interested in teaching undergraduate courses, please contact: biomed@bu.edu.

Welcoming Reception and Orientation for New BUMC Postdocs

Please join the OPA Welcoming Reception and Orientation on Friday, April 20th from 3:30 – 4:30 pm in Room L-315. This reception is a great opportunity for you to meet your new fellow
