In this seminar, Lauren Celano, GMS Career Advisor, will provide an overview of career opportunities available to individuals with graduate degrees and will provide tips on best practices to identify which role(s) are right for you. She will provide an overview of the job search process and advice on tailoring your resume and cover letter. She will also provide insight on how to use informational interviewing and networking to identify opportunities and make connections which are valuable to your job search. This seminar is designed to be a summary - over the next year, each monthly seminar will provide deep dives into each specific area.
