GMS OPDPA Career Development Monthly Seminar Series

March Seminar: Consulting Careers in Science

In this seminar, Lauren Celano, CEO of Propel Careers, will provide information about the various consulting careers that exist within the life sciences sector including strategy, scientific, intellectual property, communications, management consulting and other areas. She will discuss the differences and similarities between large and small (boutique) firms along with information regarding their hiring cycles and application materials. She will also discuss the value that a Ph.D. trained scientist can bring to each type of firm as well as what they look for in candidates.

Lauren will then engage in a Q&A session with Peter Lee-Armandt, Manager- Life Sciences Advisory at Halloran Consultants to discuss his experience within the consulting sector to provide first hand perspective to individuals looking to work in this area.
