Every student is responsible for knowing the general regulations of the Division of Graduate Medical Sciences as stated in the "Policies and Procedures" section of the GMS Bulletin and the more specific requirements stated in the individual section on each department, division, or program which may go beyond, or supplement, those of the Graduate School. At any time the administrative staff will be happy to interpret or clarify any rule or regulation. The Bulletin is available on-line at www.bumc.bu.edu/gms.
