AGENDA

7:00 - 7:15pm Closing Remarks and Program Evaluation

ACCREDITATION

The Division of Nursing in partnership with the Department of Family Medicine at Boston Medical Center is pleased to present the 2nd Annual Integrative Nursing Conference, "Integrative Nursing: The Art of Healing". This evening presentation is designed for nurses of all specialties who are interested in integrative therapies. This year's conference will explore self-care and its connection to improved patient care. Attendees will have the opportunity to experience healing modalities through interactive demonstrations and a didactic session.

۲

TARGET AUDIENCE

RNs, APNs, and LPNs. Open to all health care professionals and those who are interested in integrative therapies.

EDUCATIONAL NEEDS ADDRESSED

The purpose of this conference is to provide nurses with an overview of specific integrative therapies and how the therapies can be incorporated into nursing practice and self-care.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this conference, participants will be able to:

- Describe integrative therapies and how they can be incorporated into nursing practice
- · Identify at least two methods of integrative therapies which support self-care

ACCREDITATION

Boston Medical Center grants 2.92 continuing education hours to nurses who complete this program. You must sign in and attend the entire program and complete an evaluation form.
