Efficacy of a Resident-as-Teacher Program for General Surgery Residents: An Evaluation of 3 Years of Implementation

Alaina D Geary, MD MSHPE; Donald T Hess, MD; Luise IM Pernar, MD
Department of Surgery, Boston Medical Center, Boston, MA

Resident-Level Outcomes*

1. "I can describe the teaching techniques I employ"
   - Pre: 3.5
   - Post: 4.5

2. "I have a plan for improving my teaching skills"
   - Pre: 3
   - Post: 4.5

3. "I can apply at least two different teaching methods"
   - Pre: 3.5
   - Post: 4.5

4. "I can help others improve their teaching skills"
   - Pre: 3
   - Post: 4.5

*Resident Self-Assessment Surveys

Student-Level Outcomes

Student Assessment of Teaching Over Time

Student Assessment Before & After

5 session curriculum delivered to all general surgery residents from AY2017-present

Educational Theory
Teaching in the Clinics/Wards
Feedback and Assessment
Teaching in the OR
Review and Goal-setting