Angela Jackson, MD

Vice Chair for Education

Department of Medicine

angela.jackson@bmc.org

8-6504

Education in the DOM

Find your passion

Turn it into scholarship

Education in the DOM

- Teaching opportunities:
  - Fellowship programs
  - Post docs
  - Medical students
  - Residents: Categorical, Preliminary, Primary Care

Education in the DOM:

- Medical Students – Warren Hershman
  - Formal BUSM activities: ICM, lectures, Academies, medicine clerkship- outpatient and inpatient (Evans Student Educators)
  - Informal activities: 1:1 Mentoring, “tutoring”, project development
  - More students into Internal Medicine?
    - New models for ambulatory teaching; New models for subinternships and mentoring

Education in the DOM:

- Residency Training Program- Dave Halle

  - Areas targeted for emphasis:
    - Ambulatory Education- Adam Segal
    - Continuity Practice – Renee McKinney
    - Professionalism – Rob Lowe
    - Communication Skills- Julie Crosson
    - Evidence Based Medicine- Tuhina Neogi and Steve Vlad
    - Scholarship/Research – Elaine Hylek
    - Chief Resident development – Craig Gordon

  - Retreats, lectures, Morning Reports (Inpt and Amb), 1:1 mentoring
  - Clinical Reasoning, Physical Exam skills, Evaluation methods, Portfolio Development, International and local service experiences

Education in the DOM

Support for educational activities and scholarship promotion-

- Website with resources coming soon
  - Networking within the DOM: Team up with other faculty and trainees to develop projects
  - Evaluation design
  - Evaluation tools
  - Where to publish/present
  - Key education articles