

Please join us for a special presentation by

Dr. Joseph Friedman

Saturday, June 18, 2011 1:30pm –3:30pm

Morrison Theatre at Newbury Court in Concord, MA

Dr. Friedman is the author of “Making the Connections between Brain and Behavior: Coping with Parkinson’s Disease”. He is Professor and Chief of Movement Disorders at Brown University and Butler Hospital in Rhode Island

Directions to Newbury Court , a Deaconess Abundant Life Community:

Take Route 2 to Concord. Turn onto ORNAC (Old Road to Nine Acre Corners) at Emerson Hospital.

To Morrison Theatre, South Building (100 Newbury Court):

Pass the entrance to Emerson Hospital, pass Deaconess Road and take the next left at Newbury Court.

Continue straight. Entrance has a roof over it. Morrison Theater is on the first floor.

Please use Visitor Parking

Space is limited - RSVP required! To register, please call the APDA Information & Referral Center at Boston University Medical Center, (617) 638-8466 or toll-free at (800) 651-8466.

A DISTINCTIVE RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

