Boston University School of Medicine
Department of Neurology

Presents

The Fourteenth Annual J. Stephen Fink, M.D., Ph.D. Memorial Lecture

“Purines for Protection in Parkinson’s: from Adenosine to Urate”

Delivered by

Michael Schwarzschild, MD, PhD
Julianne Dorn Professor of Neurology
Harvard Medical School

Tuesday December 6, 2016
at 8:00 am

Boston University Medical Campus
72 East Concord Street, L110
Medical School Bldg., 1st Floor

Past Speakers for the J. Stephen Fink, M.D., Ph.D. Memorial Lecture include:
Joseph Boyd Martin, MD, PhD, Dean of Harvard Medical School
Ira Shoulson, MD, Professor of Neurology, University of Rochester Medical School
John Growden, MD, Professor of Neurology, Harvard Medical School
Stanley Fahn, MD, Professor of Neurology, Columbia University Medical School
C. Warren Olanow, MD, FRCPC, Professor and Chairman of Neurology, Mt. Sinai School of Medicine
Joseph Jankovic, MD, Professor of Neurology, Distinguished Chairman Movement Disorders, Baylor College of Medicine
G. Frederick Wooten, M.D., Professor of Neurology, Director of the Movement Disorders Center, University of Virginia Medical School
Joseph H. Friedman, M.D., Professor of Neurology and Psychiatry, Chief Division of Movement Disorders, Brown University Medical School
Benjamin Wolozin, M.D., Ph.D. Professor of Pharmacology and Neurology, Boston University School of Medicine
Kenneth Marek, M.D., President Senior Scientist, Institute for Neurodegenerative Disorders, Clinical Professor of Neurology, Yale University
David G. Standaert, M.D., Ph.D., John N. Whitaker Professor and Chair, Department of Neurology, The University of Alabama at Birmingham
Serge Przedborski, M.D., Ph.D., Page and William Black Professor, Department of Neurology, Columbia University
Marie-Francoise Chesselet, MD, PhD, Charles H. Markham Distinguished Professor and Chair, Department of Neurology, David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA