

Lactation Space at BMC & BUSM

The Boston University Medical Group supports our breastfeeding colleagues, and is committed to meeting the needs of mothers returning to work and ensuring that managers have the information they need to support them.

Crosstown Building

- 2nd floor Room 2123 –key in the door
- 6th floor Room 6127 – ask 6C front desk for access

Dowling 6N room 6316

- available to all faculty, residents, and students
- ID access required to access 6N, contact the BMC ID office for access by emailing DG-ID Office Mailing List

Evans E7 room 744

- available to all BU students, faculty & staff
- for more information about this room & scheduling, email: emc_roomscheduling_bumc@bu.edu or call 617-638-4040
- 6 small lockers available for storage – users must provide own locks

Moakley 2 OR Locker Room

- available to all faculty & OR staff
- badge access required to enter locker room area

Menino 4W Room 4039

- ask unit coordinator for the key

Yawkey 5 Room 5D-45

- available to all faculty, staff, residents & students

For More Information and Support

Please contact Louise Gant (louiseag@bu.edu), our BUHR Business Partner, for information about returning to work after birthing or adopting a child, or supporting an employee who is returning to work.

If you have any questions about the lactation rooms at Boston University, please email lactroom@bu.edu.

The Office of Family Resources is committed to helping families manage the challenges of work life and family life. This office provides a number of resources and services to support families in the Boston University community.

The Faculty & Staff Assistance Office is a free, confidential resource for BU employees who may be experiencing difficulties that affect their personal life or work performance.

Lactation Room indicated by: ★

- Crosstown 2nd flr rm 2123 or 6th flr rm 6127
- Dowling 6N rm 6316
- Evans E7 rm 744
- Mookley 2 OR Locker Room
- Menino 4W Room 4039
- Yawkey 5 Room 5D-45

