

BUSM Residence Hall Policies

Boston University School of Medicine is committed to a living environment that is professional, collegial, supportive of all personnel, and conducive to providing the best possible teaching, research and patient care. The school places a very high priority on maintaining an environment characterized by generosity, integrity, constructive interactions, mentoring, and respect for diversity and differences among members of our community.

As we open the new Residence Hall, we wish to develop a collegial community where students assist each other to meet the challenges of medical school together. Medical students are held to a higher standard of conduct and professionalism than undergraduate students.

Alcohol Policy

Any person 21 years and older in Massachusetts may keep and consume alcoholic beverages. Responsible behavior and consideration of other residents, in this and all activities at the Residence are expected. Only students living in the building may bring alcohol into the Residence. Alcohol can only be consumed in the student's suites. No open containers of alcohol are permitted in the lobby, hallways or public lounge or exercise space. No beer kegs are permitted anywhere in the facility.

Noise

Medical students need quiet to be able to study and sleep. Please keep noise to a minimum from 6 PM to 8 AM.
