"Working during the pandemic allowed me the opportunity to work in the Intensive Care Unit again. Working outside my comfort zone with a great team allowed me to learn new information regarding care for COVID 19 patients which in turn, made me a better anesthesiologist for the future. It was great to see everyone come together at NYP toward one common goal, to provide exceptional care, without exception."

Anthony Schwagerl, MD, (MED'06)