

Recovery Wellness Plan

This plan is written, maintained and kept by the recoveree. This is the recoveree's plan. It can be helpful in guiding the conversations between you, the recoveree and your recovery coach.

What is my overall recovery wellness goal?

It is often helpful to break down recovery wellness into smaller parts; these will be listed below. Under each heading, you will find some questions to get you thinking? Some will strike you as more important than others. Pay attention to these. There is an opportunity to make a goal under each heading, yet you do not need to have a goal under each heading. Oftentimes, it gets confusing to have more than a couple of goals at a time.

1. Connection to the Recovery Community

- Do I have contact on a regular basis with people in recovery?
- Am I or do I want to be involved in a recovery support group?
- If involved in a support group, am I active in it and taking suggestions?
- Am I or do I want to be involved with a faith community?
- If involved in a faith community, am I active in that community?
- Do I spend social time with others in recovery?
- Other questions I should be asking myself?
