

2016 BU Genetic Counseling Conference:
Exceptional Care through Embracing Diversity

7:45 Registration

8:25 Welcome

8:30 Shared Care Plans: Pitfalls and Promise for Chronic, Complex and Medically Fragile Kids Jack Maypole, MD
Boston University School of Medicine

9:15 Management of Complex and Chronic Pain in Children: An Interdisciplinary Team Approach Caitlin Neri, MD, MPH
Boston University School of Medicine

Laura Goldstein, PsyD
Boston University School of Medicine

10:15 Break

10:30 “Three Generations of Imbeciles” That Shaped the Practice of Clinical Genetics in the Twentieth and Twenty First Centuries Laura Hercher, MS, CGC
Sarah Lawrence College

11:30 Trying to Cure Genetic Diseases: from Diet to Gene Therapy* Phil Reilly, MD, JD, FACMG
Third Rock Ventures

12:15 Lunch

1:15 Two worlds collide: Raising Children with Mental Health Challenges & Chronic Illness Beth Pond

2:15 Discovering Novel Genes in the Genomics Era Samantha Baxter, MS, CGC
Broad Institute Center for Mendelian Genomics

3:00 Family-Building and Fertility Preservation Options for the Lesbian, Gay and Transgender Communities Samuel Pang, MD
IVF New England

* Dr. Reilly's new book, "Orphan: The Quest to Save Children with Rare genetic Disorders" (Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Press, 2015) will be available for purchase at a discounted rate. Purchases must be made in cash.

Continuing Education: An application has been submitted to NSGC for genetic counseling CEUs and is pending.

Registration:

Registration is $95 with genetic counseling CEUs ($70 without). Registration includes snacks and lunch.

Directions:

A map of the Boston University Medical Campus can be found here:

(<https://www.bumc.bu.edu/about/map-directions/>) The conference will be held in Room L110 of the Main Instructional Building (72 East Concord Street). Upon entering the building, turn left.

Parking:

If driving to campus, we suggest parking in the garage at 710 Albany Street. The daily rate is $7.

Campus is also accessible via public transportation (www.mbtta.com)

Questions:

Please email Lauren Lichten at llichten@bu.edu.