

e-Portfolio Assignment Outline/Checklist

All students will develop and maintain a program portfolio of their work to:

- ☐ Reflect on their learning
- ☐ Showcase works in progress as well as accomplishments
- ☐ Show development of professional goals
- ☐ Demonstrate research skills
- ☐ During each semester, add one element to e-portfolio
- ☐ Include examples of “best work” (reflecting each semester & progression through the program)

For graduating students, please check to make sure that you include the following in your e-portfolio:

- ☐ An overview of all of your experience
 - ☐ Your fully updated CV
 - ☐ A statement reflecting your development as a medical anthropologist, related to your career goals and reviewing the specific skills you have developed
- ☐ Evidence of advanced knowledge of the history and breadth of medical anthropology theory and its application in research;
 - ☐ For example, a list of courses taken with brief course descriptions
 - ☐ Best examples of theory papers, book reviews, and papers from other courses that reflect effective application of theory
- ☐ Evidence of an ability to design and propose an original fieldwork research project for ethics-committee review and funding agencies;
 - ☐ Abstract of thesis
 - ☐ Methods chapter summary
- ☐ Evidence of expertise in a particular area of research concentration;
 - ☐ Abstract of thesis
 - ☐ Courses taken
 - ☐ Related work in your internship and other settings
- ☐ Evidence of effective public and professional communication of medical anthropology research through publication and presentations;
 - ☐ All publications, including articles, abstracts, blog postings, etc.
 - ☐ Reports to community organizations, presentations at conferences, PDFs of Powerpoints or posters
- ☐ Evidence of your ability to collaborate with a group related to research focus, to develop applied dimensions;
 - ☐ Description of group work in courses, thesis writing group workshop experience
- ☐ Evidence of your ability to work across disciplinary boundaries.
 - ☐ A summary of specific ways in which your work integrates different disciplines;
 - ☐ Brief descriptions of collaborations you have developed in courses, research sites
 - ☐ Brief descriptions of the ways you have integrated related work experiences, undergraduate and professional education, into your degree program