HEALTH & SAFETY:	Due to an increase in cases in the Boston area, and consistent with CDC and the Boston Public Health Commission, Boston University is strongly recommending the use of masks during commencement. As you enter the lobby of the Track & Tennis Center, medical grade masks will be available for anyone who requests one. If wearing a mask, degree candidates and faculty are welcome to remove them for the procession, recession and hooding on the platform.

DISABILITY SERVICES:	You can request accessible seating and other accommodations for yourself and for any of your guests attending the GMS Commencement by visiting the following website and completing a Disability Services Accommodations Request Form (deadline May 13). Guests with accommodations should check in at the Disability Accommodations table in the Track & Tennis Center lobby upon arrival. CART will be accessed by guests on their own mobile devices. The URL to receive the CART broadcast is go.bu.edu/ttc. This URL will be provided at the TTC when you arrive for the ceremony.
LACTATION ROOM / GENDER NEUTRAL RESTROOMS:	Room 102H, located in the TTC's office suite to the right of the main entrance is designated as a lactation room. A gender-neutral restroom and changing tables will also be accessible to guests.
HOODING:	If you are hooding a graduate, please watch this brief tutorial video to familiarize yourself with the process.
REGALIA (CAP/GOWN):	Everyone who participates in commencement must wear the approved academic regalia. Graduates: Online ordering is no longer available. MISS THE DEADLINE? A limited selection of regalia will be available for rental at the Barnes & Noble on the Charles River Campus (910 Commonwealth Avenue) beginning May 9 although sufficient inventory cannot be guaranteed. Please email regalia@bu.edu with questions. MS/MA regalia will include: a red gown, a black cap, a hood (yellow gold for MS, white for MA), and a green tassel. Please open and check your regalia package upon receiving it to ensure you have all pieces and so your gown has time to “de-wrinkle.” Please do not arrive dressed in regalia due to the security check.
REGALIA RETURN:	Graduates: Masters students do not return their regalia. Faculty: Regalia may be returned to the faculty robing area after the ceremony (please retain your bag with your name and return your regalia in it) or return directly to Barnes & Noble (910 Commonwealth Avenue) by May 31.
SECURITY SCREENING:	Graduates: Please do NOT arrive at the TTC dressed in regalia, and do NOT bring any personal items or valuables that you cannot fit in a pocket under your regalia. There will not be any place to leave purses, bags, or regalia packaging. Faculty: Please do NOT arrive at the TTC dressed in regalia. Security will be screening personal items. Guests: Large bags are not permitted at the TTC; please keep your carry bags to purses and smaller camera bags. Security will be screening personal items. No wrapped gifts are allowed.
