Interested in Innovation at BMCHS? Join our Virtual Innovation Community on MS Teams

The BMCHS Innovation Office has created a virtual community on MS Teams designed to connect and support colleagues across the health system who share an interest in innovation.

At our site, you will be able to:

- Ask your innovation questions — and get answers from the Innovation Office team
- Access tools, resources, and templates to help you on your innovation journey
- Be the first to hear any news coming out of the Innovation Office
- Build community

Whether you're curious about what innovation means at BMCHS, are looking for friendly guidance on a project, or just want to see what's possible. Come explore, share, and help shape the future of our Innovation culture at BMCHS!
