

GRAYKEN FELLOWSHIP IN ADDICTION MEDICINE: OB/GYN TRACK

Subspecialty training for Obstetrician Gynecologists

- 2-year Addiction Fellowship focused on Maternal Health & designed specifically for OB/GYNs
- Expert training in complex care of birthing people with substance use disorders
- Specialized curriculum tailored to prepare fellows for ABOG and Addiction Medicine
- Board Certification upon completion
- Opportunity to pursue mentored research, education, or program development tracks
- Hosted by the Department of OB/GYN and the Grayken Center for Addiction

The Program

- Foundation in general addiction medicine with a unique concentration in complex obstetric care
- Multidisciplinary faculty from the Grayken Center for Addiction and Project RESPECT (Boston Medical Center's nationally-recognized perinatal substance use disorder treatment program)
- Prepares future leaders for careers in the emerging field of Obstetric-Addiction Medicine
- Option for individualized graduate-level research training

Applicant Requirements

- Completion of OB/GYN Residency (ACGME) and ABOG Board Eligible

Affiliated Institutions

- Boston Medical Center, an academic safety-net hospital
- Boston University School of Public Health
- Boston University Chobanian & Avedisian School of Medicine

Applications due September 1, 2023

For more information contact

Linda Neville (617-638-8344; linda.neville@bmc.org)

<https://bit.ly/3EQdc3z>

