WHY WE STARTED VERYAPT

VeryApt was born from the simple realization that the small things about an apartment are often the most important: a friendly doorman, lots of sunlight in the living room, a running trail nearby, or that amazing hole-in-the-wall Thai restaurant across the street. We understand that the frustrations of apartment hunting are universal, but share a belief that it doesn’t have to be. We know what makes an apartment truly feel like home is unique for each person and that’s why our focus is on bringing you personalized recommendations based on timely, relevant, and real user reviews. We’ll be there every step of the way to help you find your perfect apartment.

LANGHAM COURT

I love the south end. I’ve lived here for 6 years. I’ve built relationships with the families that I babysit for and have explored the many restaurants close by. I have experienced the cost of living in this neighborhood increase immensely over my six years so unfortunately it is not sustainable for me to stay in the neighborhood once I graduate.

JAMES COURT

The area is a quiet place since it is close to the school. It is a close walk to Back Bay, Prudential, and Chinatown. There are individuals walking around everywhere and the parks nearby are great! The only con is that there isn’t much grocery stores close by except for Foodie’s & Wholefoods.
ABOUT FENWAY/KENMORE

This neighborhood has a ton of energy and is great for students who wish to walk to campus because of the proximity to BU. It is home to the historic Fenway Park and boasts plenty of restaurants and bars. Cultural landmarks that are definitely worth a visit include the Museum of Fine Arts, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, and Symphony Halls. It’s hard to find a spot in Boston with more buzz than Fenway/Kenmore, especially during baseball season which makes it a great place to socialize.

I really like living in Allston! It’s a little far from BUSPH but the neighborhood has so many fun restaurants and bars, plus it’s close to the main BU campus which is nice for the FitRec and other amenities.

Very student-oriented neighborhood, which means weekends can be noisy. The commute to the medical campus is about 45-50 minutes, but saving on rent makes it worth it for me.

“I’ve really enjoyed living at James Court. The location is incredibly convenient, as it is right across the street from the back entrance to the medical school. The rent is somewhat high, but the lack of a broker’s fee does help significantly reduce the annualized cost. Brownstones

Smaller properties and how to find them

ABOUT BROWNSTONES

Brownstones are apartments in older buildings, typically a few stories tall. They usually do not have a doorman, an elevator, or many amenities, but can be cheaper and more spacious than the apartment and condo units in high-rises.

WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER A BROWNSTONE

- CHEAPER
- LARGER FLOOR PLANS
- 3+ BEDROOMS AVAILABLE
- MORE PRIVACY

WHY YOU MAY WANT TO AVOID A BROWNSTONE

- NO DOORMAN
- LESS CONVENIENT LOCATIONS
- OLDER CONSTRUCTION
- LIMITED AMENITIES
- MORE MAINTENANCE ISSUES

Finding a brownstone

Brownstones can be challenging to find because they tend to be individually owned and do not have full time leasing managers. Brownstone listings are typically available ~60 days in advance. You can find a brownstone by searching online listings, contacting a landlord directly, or by working with VeryApt’s Concierge Team who can help identify some options.

Preparing for a brownstone search

Most BUMC students opt for larger properties in order to live closer to other students and simplify the housing search. That said, there are plenty of wonderful brownstones - be prepared to visit more properties to find that perfect home, carefully examine the pros/cons, and move quickly if you find a unit you love.

TIPS AND ADVICE

Reliable Landlords

Check online reviews and talk to previous tenants to find out about your landlord. Look for one that responds quickly to maintenance requests and has a history of returning deposits.

Noise and Neighbors

Sounds often travel well through brownstones and you can easily be disturbed by barking dogs, music, or construction. Check out the surrounding area to get a sense for what it may be like.

Lease Terms

Leases with independent landlords are negotiable. Check your lease for restrictions on sub-letters and visitor policies. You may be able to avoid a rent increase by locking in a longer lease.

Understanding THE RENTING PROCESS

If this is your first time renting, here is a heads up on what the process is like:

Application process
You will be asked to fill out an application for an apartment. Likely this will include an application fee ($30-50) and potentially a deposit (up to one month’s rent). If you’re an international student, you may have to provide alternate information - in the absence of a social security number, bank accounts, etc., often landlords will accept your visa documents and acceptance letter. Landlords will use your information to approve you based only on your credit history and income. In the event where there are issues, a landlord may grant the application on the condition that a guarantor cosigns the lease.

After you’re approved
A landlord will often ask for a security deposit and prepaid rent. A landlord typically charges up to two months’ rent as a security deposit and will ask for up to two months in prepaid rent. Anything beyond this is more than normal. At the end of your lease and after you give proper notification that you are moving out (typically 60-90 days), the landlord has 30 days to return the security deposit at the end of the lease. The landlord may not return the deposit in full if there are claimed damages to the property or other charges outstanding.

What to look out for
Check for additional charges or obligations that could cost you more than the listed price of a property. This could include move-in/move-out fees, renters insurance requirements, condo fees, common electrical fees, etc. Definitely ask about what previous electrical/utility bills have been to get a feel for any additional monthly costs there may be. Be sure to research the landlord and management company before placing any sort of deposit. If you have any specific questions, feel free to reach out to us at contact@veryapt.com.
